Republicans Meet.

Twenty of the twenty-two Republican Committeemen of Bourbon county met at Hotel Windsor, this city, Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. In the absence of the regular chairman, W. L. Yerkes, Mr. W. A. Thomasen presided.

There was considerable diversity of opinion in regard to the best plan to adopt to win in November. Some favored a full ticket, some to attack imaginary weak points, some to no ticket at all. In fact, they were at sea, with no one desiring to sacrifice himself and make a losing race. They adjourned to meet again next Saturday.

Before the adjournment the following members resigned in order to make the race for Magistrate in their respective precincts: Dr. M. Hurst, Millersburg; H. C. Ingram, Ruddles Mills, and Albert Allen, Centerville.

The following persons were selected to fill the vacancies: Thomas Brown, Millersburg; W. H. C. Allen, Centerville, and Charles Huff, Ruddles Mills.

Communication From Hiram Duley.

FLEMINGSBURG, KY., Sept. 4, 1905.

SWIFT CHAMP, ESQ., Paris, Ky.,

My Dear Sir:—Please say for me to the press of this section that I fully appreciate their kindly offers of assistance since the disastrous fire which swept away my printing plant. I will in a few days be on my feet again, and will this week issue a small paper from the Kellogg house in Cincinnati. The papers for Paris, Lexington and Central Kentucky points were burned along with everything else. My books were destroyed completely; my subscription books are incomplete, and my subscribers who do not receive their papers will please write me, giving date to which they are paid. Also any in arrears will find it a good time to remit. Your paper may reach a good many of them. I am

Respectfully,

HIRAM DULEY,
Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.
